

Dr. Marlina L. Lino
Associate Professor, Mariano Marcos State University
Ilocos Norte, Philippines
mllino@mmsu.edu.ph

Dr. Marlina L. Lino received her Doctor of Philosophy in Linguistics at Mariano Marcos State University (MMSU) in 2010. Currently the Chief of MMSU Language Center, she has been a faculty member in the University's Department of Languages Literature College of Arts and Sciences since 1983. She also holds several administrative positions at MMSU: as President of the MMSU Faculty Association (2010-present); as Program Adviser of the MAED in Ilokano Studies (2016-present) and as an Adviser of The Paragon, the Official Student Publication of the Graduate School (2017-present).

She had authored and co-authored various research works: Surfacing Literary Features: Anchor in Developing a Guide in Teaching Short Stories published in International Journal of Languages, Literature, and Linguistics, 2019; Reflecting on Students' Reflections Toward Learning the Ilokano Language, a Research Essay published in the book PARABUR in 2016; Development of Information and Communication Technology-based Resource Kit in Teaching Poetry published in International Journal of Languages, Literature and Linguistics, 2017; and others.

Dr. Lino has an active engagement to the following professional organizations: Linguistic Society of the Philippines (LSP) - Lifetime Member; Nakem Conferences Philippines – Member of Board of Directors; Association of Philippine Colleges of Arts and Sciences (APCAS) Region I Chapter - Vice President; Asia TEFL – Member; International Economics Research Development Center - Senior Member; and Association for Development of Teaching, Education and Learning – Member.