

Dr. Angela E. Lorenzana
Associate Professor, Bicol University
Albay, Philippines
aelorenzana@bicol-u.edu.ph

Dr. Angela Esquivel Lorenzana, appointed Commissioner representing the Bikol Language on January 6, 2020 in the Commission on the Filipino Language, Malacanang, Manila, is a faculty member of the Bicol University College of Education (BUCE) and Graduate School (BUGS). She finished her doctorate in Liberal Arts in the field of Linguistics at the University of Warsaw, Warsaw, Poland; took up her Master of Arts in Education major in English at the BU Graduate School; and graduated Magna cum laude from the BU College of Education Bachelor of Secondary Education major in English.

She has done research and extension work on Bikol and teaches Linguistics and English subjects. She once taught English to students of varied nationalities at the Academia de la Lengua at the heart of the city in Warsaw, Poland. She studied the Polish language as a required subject in her doctorate at the Polonicum. A campus journalist, she was editor-in-chief of her college and high school papers. She was also the associate editor of An Bangraw, the Legazpi Diocesan paper. From 2010-2014, she served as Director of the BU Language Center and currently, she is the Department Chairperson of BUCE Language Arts and Literature.